

2024 Ignite Peace Youth Justice Award

Ignite Peace, formerly Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center, is excited to announce the 2024 Ignite Peace Youth Justice Award. This award will be given to a club, group, or extracurricular program of high school students who have made a dedicated effort to promote justice in Greater Cincinnati. The winner will receive the award as part of Ignite Peace's Annual Gathering in the fall of 2024 (date TBD). In addition to the recognition, a $500 award will be given to the group.

Previous Award Winners:

Hands Across Campus from Archbishop McNicholas High School - 2022

Seton Helping Saints from Seton High School - 2023

We will be accepting nominations until July 26, 2024.

Criteria:

- Group, Club, or Extracurricular program for individuals between the ages of 14 to 18
- Purpose of the group is driven by peace and justice work
- Demonstrates actions for peace and justice through unique outreach or educational efforts
- Demonstrates growth in understanding of justice through their work
- Ongoing and sustainable commitment to peace and justice (more than a one time or once a year project)
- Efforts by the group have advanced participation in justice and peace within the school or local community

To nominate a group, fill out this Google Form by July 26, 2024:

<https://forms.gle/WtDCVbDEWjzP3xVP9>